ABOUT THE DOMAINE

Bodegas Yuste is a family-owned collection of several small wineries located in the historic city of Sanlúcar de Barrameda. The company was founded in 1991 by Francisco "Paco" Yuste, the owner of a successful drinks distributorship, when he purchased the historic Bodega Santa Ana and its centenarian solera. This bodega used to belong to the Rainera Pérez Marín family and is now the residence of the Yuste family. Dedicated to the founder's late mother Caridad ('Kika'), this Manzanilla Pasada 'La Kika' from Bodegas Yuste is a relatively new product on the market. It used to be bottled only for the family and close friends.

WINEMAKING

Produced in Sanlúcar de Barrameda using Criaderas and the Soleras system. Aged in oak casks (under Flor) on the lees for 5 years, rather than the usual 3, to give it more complexity, texture and weight.

TASTING NOTES

Bright, straw-like yellow colour with diamond sheen. Penetrating aromas of almonds and olives. Light and dry on the palate with hints of salt and wine with a pleasant bitterness on the finish. Suggested food pairing: tapas, seafood, white fish, soup or ham. Serve chilled.

Sommelier Wine Awards Gold Medal Winner 2017 & 2018.
