

Terenzi 'Balbino' Vermentino di Maremma Toscana DOC

COUNTRY	REGION	GRAPE	VINTAGE
Italy	Tuscany	100% Vermentino	2022

ABOUT THE DOMAINE

Founded in 2001 by siblings Federico, Balbino and Francesca Romana, the Terenzi estate spans 150 hectares in the Morellino di Scansano zone of the Maremma. With over 60 hectares of vines and a modern approach to environmental preservation, the family, along with celebrated winemaker Giuseppe Caviola, are on a quest for raising Morellino di Scansano to the highest level of quality and excellence. The management of the vineyards, the harvest of the grapes, wine making and bottling are all made with passion and care by a highly specialised and motivated staff led by Giuseppe Caviola, one of the most important winemakers in Italy and in the world.

WINEMAKING

The soils of this vineyard are rich in limestone which gives finesse to these white wines. Soft pressing of the whole grape. Pneumatic pressing. Fermentation in stainless steel at a controlled temperature without skins. Malolactic fermentation not carried out. Aged in steel.

TASTING NOTES

Deep straw yellow. Hints of pears and white flowers. Clean and elegant on the palate, with the marked floral and fruity notes that are typical of this grape variety. It has a lively freshness and is well-balanced and refined, long lasting finish. It goes well with various fish, raw, seafood dishes, shellfish soups and delicate vegetable-based pastas. It is ideal for long aperitifs.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Alcohol by volume
13.5%